Apologies for the bad start to the League - this was not our fault nor that of Holme Pierrepont Running Club, who tried hard to make the best of a bad situation. The rowing fraternity only informed us at 4.00 p.m. that they would require the centre until at least 7.35 p.m.

Thank you all for co-operating and making the best of a confused evening, not to mention the extremely cold conditions - congratulations to all the runners, marshals and officials for coping with the elements and making sure that we got off to a start.

Because of the lateness of the finish, I decided to ensure a safe completion and abandoned any attempt to process results on the night. I hope the enclosed are accurate - please let me know of any mistakes or omissions. Unfortunately, two discs were given out together early in the Men's Race (understandable in the cold weather) and so I have had to move everyone up one place from position 12. This has obviously affected Team totals as well, compared with your original calculations. I hope everything is clear.

The next event is at Epperstone on the 19th May, starting at 7.15 p.m. (I promise !). I look forward to seeing you all there in better circumstances and, hopefully, better weather.
